A Country of Held Breath

LENA FENN

The Waking Lands, Book Two

The letting go is the love.

Neve Elin can do what no other Reckoner alive can do. She can untie the knot that holds a frozen village, and give it back its breath.

But she is one girl, and the Anchor stills whole valleys faster than one girl can thaw them. Every stopped village is a clock.

When a letter comes across the Sunder Sea, Neve learns she has family on the living shore, the half of her line who stayed. Beneath their house lies the First Map, the breathing heart of the world, and everyone who has ever lost someone wants it.
