Martini Shot

LYNN JEREMY

DS Robyn Calder, Book Two

Hair. Makeup. Murder.

On a film set, the last shot of the day is called the martini shot. For someone at Blackwharf Studios, it will be the last shot of their life.

Robyn Calder never wanted to see her past turned into entertainment. But as the cameras roll on the true story of her most notorious case, the crew begin to die in ways that look like accidents and feel like choreography.

The studio wants silence. The money wants the show finished. The press wants a monster. And somewhere behind the lights, someone is directing every move.
